

JOURNEYS WEST MUSEUM EXHIBITS

Rubric for journals, artifacts, broadsides, maps, and timelines

4	3	2	1	Evidence:
The project follows all guidelines.	The project follows most guidelines.	The project follows some guidelines.	The project does not follow guidelines.
The project teaches others all the important information in a highly creative and effective way.	The project teaches others most of the important information in a creative and effective way.	The project teaches some of the important information in a somewhat creative or effective way.	The project teaches others minimal information or is not effective or creative.
The project reflects a great deal of effort, is original and is visually appealing.	The project reflects effort, is original and is visually appealing.	The project reflects some effort and is somewhat visually appealing.	The project does not reflect much effort or is not visually appealing.
Descriptive labels, captions or signs provide details about the subject.	Descriptive labels, captions or signs provide some details about the subject.	Descriptive labels, captions or signs provide few details about the subject.	Descriptive labels, captions or signs are missing or do not provide details about the subject.
All illustrations or objects fully support the text and include details that convey additional information.	All illustrations or objects somewhat support the text and may include details that convey additional information.	Most illustrations or objects somewhat support the text but do not include details that convey additional information.	Few illustrations or objects support the text and do not include details that convey additional information.

Name _____ Exhibit Viewpoint _____